July 30, 2025; Roseland NJ –

Brach Eichler LLC, a full-service law firm based in Roseland, NJ, is pleased to announce that the Firm's Trusts and Estates department has been recognized by Chambers USA (2025) as among New Jersey's top law practices. In addition to the Firm's overall recognition, Executive Committee Member and Co-Chair of the Trusts and Estates practice group Susan K. Dromsky-Reed, has again been recognized by the 2025 Chambers High Net Worth Guide (HNW) among New Jersey's top law practitioners. Chambers High Net Worth differentiates the best professional advisers for international private wealth by identifying and ranking law firms, lawyers and a range of other professional advisers globally.

"This recognition is a testament to the exceptionally hard work we as a group put in every day," Stuart Gladstone said. "We thank Chambers High Net Worth Guide for recognizing the pride we take in delivering innovative, business-focused solutions to our clients."

Brach Eichler's Trusts and Estates Group (Band 3, Private Wealth Law – New Jersey) works with private wealth clients to design tax-efficient wealth management solutions that encourage productive and creative succession planning tailored to meet their needs. Over three decades, Stuart Gladstone, David J. Ritter and Susan Dromsky-Reed, built a legacy of long-standing client relationships through their leadership and legal ability. Together, they expanded the department's reach, further enhancing its reputation and unwavering commitment to excellence. Over the years, the Trusts and Estates department has earned recognition for consistently achieving exceptional results and delivering innovative, personalized strategies to protect and preserve client wealth.
I'm honored to have our Trust and Estates department be recognized by the Chambers High Net Worth Guide," said Susan Dromsky-Reed. "Chambers is known for its meticulous selection process and high standards. Our team has built a strong reputation in private wealth law, and I'm proud that we are acknowledged for the results we consistently achieve for our clients."

Susan K. Dromsky-Reed (Band 3, Private Wealth Law) co-chairs Brach Eichler's Trusts and Estates department, and has significant experience advising wealthy clients on trusts, estates and charitable planning matters. Susan helps families and individuals create plans which can simply and easily transfer assets to their heirs, while taking into consideration necessary income, estate, and inheritance tax planning. Her goal is to provide peace of mind and to promote family harmony, during the planning process and during estate administration. As part of her practice, she provides individuals and families with planning and tax advice regarding spousal, intergenerational, and business succession; charitable planning; life insurance planning; and preparation of prenuptial agreements. She assists individuals in creating wills, irrevocable trusts, and living revocable trusts. She also helps clients draft and understand financial powers of attorney, living wills, and health care agent designations. Chambers cites sources who say "Susan is an excellent attorney who provides thoughtful, sophisticated services to her clients."
