Alex Capozzi Named One of the 2021 “New Leaders of the Bar” by New Jersey Law Journal

8/3/2021

The New Jersey Law Journal (NJLJ) has named Brach Eichler Associate, Alex S. Capozzi one of the “New Leaders of the Bar” in their 2021 New Jersey Legal Awards. For the award, the NJLJ considers attorneys yet to reach the age of 40 who have brought both notable achievements and outstanding potential to the table. NJLJ awards honor those who have left a mark on the legal community in New Jersey and beyond through their unwavering dedication to the profession.

“Congratulations to Alex for this well-deserved recognition,” said John D. Fanburg, Managing Member. “As a young lawyer he is unafraid to take on big challenges, and his leadership qualities are evident. I look forward to witnessing Alex’ future accomplishments as he continues to further the best practices of the profession.”

NJLJ will publish profiles and Q&As about the award winners and their accomplishments along with a celebration of all award winners on September 23, 2021.

Alex Capozzi is a trial lawyer with extensive experience litigating cases involving personal injuries and complex civil issues in both New York and New Jersey. Alex has personally obtained multi-million-dollar jury verdicts at trial. He is a lifetime member of the Multi-Million Dollar Advocates Forum, one of the most prestigious groups of trial lawyers in the United States in which fewer than 1 percent of U.S. lawyers are members. Alex is believed to be one of the youngest attorneys in history to ever obtain a multi-million-dollar verdict.
