Brach Eichler LLC, a premiere full-service law firm based in Roseland, NJ, is pleased to welcome accomplished real estate and land use attorney Kenneth A. Porro as Member in the Land Use Practice Group based in the Firm's corporate headquarters in Roseland NJ.

"We are thrilled to announce a talented addition to Brach Eichler's flourishing Land Use practice and welcome Kenneth Porro," said John D. Fanburg, Brach Eichler Managing Member. "His hiring marks another thrilling chapter for our growing Firm, which strengthens our offerings and complements our steadfast commitment to client service. Mr. Porro's prior experiences as General Corporate Counsel to the Meadowlands Municipal Mayors Committee, Meadowlands Construction Officials Association and Industrial Steel Structures, LLC will allow him to offer numerous clients with complex real estate development knowledge and understanding throughout New Jersey."

"I am excited to join Brach Eichler's very successful real estate practice and help expand its presence in New Jersey," Ken said. "Brach Eichler provides a unique opportunity for me to join its Land Use group while also benefiting from the firm's team of accomplished attorneys and other professionals to provide a full suite of legal services to our developer and builder clients."

"Ken has decades of governmental, land use, real estate and business litigation experience, and clients turn to him because he knows how to get things done," said Allen Popowitz, Chair of the firm's Real Estate Practice Group. "Ken broadens our bench strength in environmental litigation and he provides our clients with deep experience in land development and infrastructure-related work."

Ken is a graduate of Loyola University, Baltimore, Maryland and University of Baltimore School of Law. He is a member of the Bergen and Hudson County Bar Associations, the New Jersey State Bar Association and the American Inns of Court Foundation. Ken has received the dual honor of being listed in the 2024 edition of “Super Lawyers” by New Jersey Magazine and the 2025 edition of Best Lawyers in America®. He is also a past Condemnation Commissioner and lecturer for the New Jersey State Bar Association on Adverse Possession, Land Use and Municipal Tax Appeals as well as other local government/land use topics.
