Brach Eichler's David J. Ritter to be Honored by Eva's Village

Roseland, NJ (February 15, 2019) – David J. Ritter, a member and chair of the tax practice at Brach Eichler, LLC, in Roseland, NJ, will be honored at the Eva's Village Lawyers, Accountants, and Financial Professionals (LAF Dinner) on Thursday, February 21, 2019, at Westmount Country Club in Woodland Park, NJ. Ritter will be one of three honorees at the second annual event for their service to the organization. A member of the LAF 2019 Committee, Ritter has been a member of Eva's board since 1999.

According to Gregory Floyd, Executive Vice President, Mission, of Eva's Village, "The LAF Dinner brings together members of several professional communities in celebration and support of Eva's Village and its work with individuals and families facing hunger, homelessness, and addiction. In 2018, more than 200 lawyers and accountants raised over $115,000 to help fund our programs that help thousands of people in need each year. This year's event was expanded to include donors and friends from the financial community."

"I am honored to be recognized by Eva's Village which has served so many and to be part of a community of professionals that have given so much to the organization," said Ritter.

At Brach Eichler, Ritter advises on income and estate planning for individuals, as well as provides succession planning and sophisticated estate planning services to a wide range of clients. He earned a J.D., with honors, from Rutgers University School of Law, an LL.M. in taxation from New York University, and a B.S. from Rutgers University. Ritter, a resident of Scotch Plains, NJ, has been named among Best Lawyers in America® every year since 2007 and is peer review rated as AV Preeminent, the highest rating for professional excellence by Martindale-Hubbell.
