Brach Eichler's John D. Fanburg and Keith J. Roberts Named to NJBIZ 2025 Law Power List

Roseland, NJ – July 11, 2025 – Brach Eichler LLC is proud to announce that Managing Member John D. Fanburg and Litigation Chair Keith J. Roberts have been recognized by NJBIZ on its prestigious 2025 Law Power List. This annual list highlights influential legal professionals who have made a significant impact on New Jersey through their legal practice and community contributions.

Compiled by the NJBIZ editorial staff, the Law Power List honors legal professionals who have distinguished themselves through outstanding professional achievements and meaningful public service. Honorees are selected based on editorial research, industry input, and reader recommendations, and are recognized for helping make New Jersey a better place to live, work, and do business.

John D. Fanburg, Managing Member and Chair of the firm's Healthcare Law Practice, is widely regarded as one of New Jersey's foremost healthcare attorneys. With a career spanning more than four decades, Mr. Fanburg advises major hospitals, physician groups, and other healthcare providers on complex regulatory, transactional, and compliance matters. His leadership has not only guided the growth of Brach Eichler but has also helped shape the legal landscape for healthcare delivery in the Garden State.

Keith J. Roberts, Chair of the firm's Litigation Practice, is recognized as a leading healthcare litigator with a track record of success in high-stakes cases involving regulatory compliance, insurance audits, and healthcare fraud. Certified by the New Jersey Supreme Court as a Civil Trial Attorney, Mr. Roberts has built a reputation for strategic advocacy and effective resolution of complex litigation for hospitals, surgical centers, and healthcare professionals across the state.

"We are both incredibly proud to be honored for our leadership, integrity, and contributions to the legal and healthcare communities in New Jersey," said Mr. Fanburg in a statement. "Our inclusion on the NJBIZ Law Power List reflects the high standards of service and excellence that define Brach Eichler."
