Governor Murphy Approves Hospital At Home Act

October 31, 2023

On September 25, 2023, Governor Murphy signed into law the "Hospital At Home Act" which permits the Department of Health to establish a state program similar to the Federal Acute Hospital at Home Program. The state program will permit a hospital to provide acute care services at an individual's private residence. For the acute care services to be eligible for reimbursement, the licensed healthcare provider must be credentialed by a carrier. The Hospital At Home Act will take effect in January 2024.
