Governor Murphy Awards $5 Million Dollars in Navigator Grants

11/30/2023

On October 27, 2023, Governor Murphy, in collaboration with the Department of Banking and Insurance, announced a grant award of $5,000,000 to the New Jersey State Navigator Grant Program. Navigator grants support organizations that provide training programs, and educational activities, and offer free, unbiased assistance to residents seeking to purchase insurance through the healthcare marketplace. This grant will be provided to 26 community organizations across New Jersey which will assist uninsured and underinsured residents in registering for healthcare coverage via the healthcare marketplace during open enrollment which began on November 1, 2023.
