Learn more about the methodology here. No aspect of this advertisement has been approved by the Supreme Court of New Jersey.

John has been a healthcare transactions attorney for over 40 years. He has been recognized as a “dealmaker” due to his success in closing a great number of strategic transactions, for clients including major hospitals, multi-specialty and single specialty medical groups, ACOs, ambulatory surgery centers, ambulatory care facilities, investors in private equity transactions, imagery centers, laboratories, physician specialty organizations and IVF providers.

John expressed his enthusiasm for joining the esteemed cohort of Garden State attorneys, saying, “Over the course of my career as a healthcare transactional attorney, with the assistance and support of my Brach Eichler colleagues I have become a trusted advisor for my clients. When navigating noteworthy strategic transactions within the healthcare industry, I enjoy the perseverance needed in deal-making. It is a privilege to be acknowledged for my professional contributions and community engagement.”

Following an open nomination period, honorees were chosen by a panel of independent judges with experience in the justice system. A celebration showcasing these professionals took place on Tuesday, March 25, 2025 at The Marigold in Somerset.
