New Jersey Department of Banking and Insurance Adopts Regulations to Provide Abortion Coverage

October 31, 2023

On September 18, 2023, the New Jersey Department of Banking and Insurance (DOBI) announced its adoption of rules requiring carriers to provide comprehensive abortion coverage as a part of all health benefit plans regulated by DOBI. Individual and small employer health insurance markets have had this requirement in place since January 1, 2023. Fully insured large employer health insurance markets will now be required to provide the same coverage as their smaller counterparts.
