Paul J. DeMartino Jr. Successfully Obtained a $7.6M Judgment in Favor of a Group of Orthopedic Surgeons

6/7/2024

Litigation attorney Paul J. DeMartino Jr. successfully obtained a $7.6M judgment in favor of a group of orthopedic surgeons in a contentious business divorce with their former medical practice and partner. The multi-million dollar judgment came after a ten day arbitration hearing. In addition to succeeding on our client's affirmative claims he successfully defended against counterclaims for breach of fiduciary duty and alleged violations of the New Jersey Trade Secrets Act.

Paul is a business and healthcare litigator who concentrates his practice in high stakes commercial litigation. He is of counsel in the Litigation Practice of Brach Eichler focusing on complex commercial disputes amongst closely held companies and their members. In addition, Paul represents a variety of businesses and providers in the healthcare and real estate industries regarding employment and contractual disputes.
