Brach Eichler LLC proudly announces that Susan K. Dromsky-Reed, Co-Chair of the firm's Trusts and Estates Practice, has been appointed Chair of the New Jersey State Bar Association's Real Property Trusts and Estate Law Section Board of Consultors.

Dromsky-Reed, a highly respected attorney with decades of experience in estate planning, tax, and nonprofit advisory services, will help shape legislative priorities and reforms in trust and estate and real property law across New Jersey. Her appointment reflects her deep expertise and long-standing commitment to the advancement of the profession and public policy in this area.

"This appointment is a well-earned recognition of Susan's leadership in the legal community," said John D. Fanburg, Managing Member of Brach Eichler. "Her insight, professionalism, and commitment to excellence will be instrumental in guiding legislative developments that affect families, fiduciaries, and practitioners across the state."

A Fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel and a regular contributor to the New Jersey Tax Handbook, Dromsky-Reed has received numerous accolades throughout her career, including recognition in The Best Lawyers in America, New Jersey Super Lawyers, and the Chambers High Net Worth Guide. She was recently named to the ROI Influencers: Power List 2025 and the NJBIZ Leaders in Law.

At Brach Eichler, she advises clients on estate and tax planning, intergenerational wealth transfer, charitable giving, prenuptial agreements, and nonprofit formation. Her practice is focused on helping families and business owners preserve their legacies with thoughtful, customized planning.

"I am honored to serve in this new role," said Dromsky-Reed. "I look forward to working with my colleagues on the Board of Consultors to ensure that New Jersey's trust and estate and real property laws continue to serve the evolving needs of individuals, families, and the legal profession."
