Anthony Juliano is an experienced trial attorney with a broad civil litigation practice. Having litigated numerous lawsuits in his career, Anthony understands how to vigorously represent both plaintiffs and defendants throughout the litigation process. An important focus of his work is representing plaintiffs in complex personal injury matters. Anthony also represents both individual and corporate plaintiffs and defendants in matters involving healthcare litigation, commercial litigation, and general litigation. Anthony's practice also includes litigating business disputes and defending claims related to the New Jersey Consumer Fraud Act.

Anthony has successfully represented clients in business tort, contract, restrictive covenant, defamation, consumer fraud, and professional negligence lawsuits. He has significant experience representing a wide range of clients including individuals, business owners, medical practices, hospitals, building maintenance companies.

Additionally, Anthony has extensive experience analyzing pre-suit claims and representing clients in state and federal court, in arbitrations, and before various administrative agencies including the New Jersey Division on Civil Rights. When it comes to getting your lawsuit resolved, Anthony has extensive experience in trials, mediations, and both binding and non-binding arbitrations.
