Robyn Lym is an associate in the Litigation Department at Brach Eichler and focuses on commercial, construction, and civil litigation. Robyn's experience involves multi-million dollar cases, appellate matters, and federal and state litigation involving large scale electronic discovery, as well as emergent applications seeking injunctive relief.

Robyn counsels clients on a range of strategic legal issues, including breach of contract, breach of warranty, consumer fraud, fraud, and shareholder disputes, construction disputes involving non-payment, termination, or construction defects, landlord/tenant disputes, and employment restrictive covenants. In 2023 – 2024, Robyn was named to the "New Jersey Rising Stars" list by Super Lawyers.*

Robyn received her J.D. from NYU School of Law and her B.A. from Columbia University. Early in her career, Robyn served as a Judicial Law Clerk for the Honorable Arthur Bergman, J.S.C., of the New Jersey Superior Court, Middlesex County Vicinage. Prior to joining Brach Eichler, Robyn handled litigation for firms in New Jersey and New York, where she represented individual and corporate clients in civil and corporate litigation matters, such as civil RICO, commercial, appellate, and antitrust matters.
