For more than twenty (20) years, Sean takes the time to listen to his clients and provide crisp, clear guidance that is actionable.

A seasoned litigator, Sean focuses his practice on representing both individuals and corporations in their personal, business and commercial matters, including complex high-net-worth matrimonial matters. Sean has honed his extensive litigation skills to effectively represent clients in all aspects of their lives by custom-tailoring solutions to their complicated, and often sensitive, problems.

Sean regularly represents clients in matters involving healthcare regulatory and statutory disputes; multifamily property matters; and family services including estate and tax planning, prenuptial agreements, matrimonial/divorce matters, child custody/protection issues, grandparent visitation rights, kinship guardianships, and domestic violence.

Sean acts as a mediator and sits as an early settlement and blue ribbon panelist to assist the Court, attorneys, and litigants in the resolution of complex family law matters in New Jersey. Prior to joining Brach Eichler, Sean served as a law clerk to the Honorable Sybil R. Moses, A.J.S.C. (ret.), New Jersey Superior Court.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

Each matter handled by Sean is dependent upon the unique facts and particular circumstances. An example of successful matters handled by Sean include:

- Successfully represented and resolved a complex relocation matter involving multiple children and post-judgment relationships
- Successful resolution of complex dispute involving unmarried individuals and their joint business venture
- Successful resolution of hundreds of family law disputes involving issues of spousal support, custody, and equitable distribution of personal property and business interests
- On behalf of estate, obtained judgment declaring testamentary trustee position vacant and substituting new trustee to effectuate purposes of trust.
- Obtained injunctive relief against family members engaging in improper and harassing behavior.
- A favorable settlement wherein a testamentary trust was dissolved and the corpus distributed to the income beneficiary and the remaining beneficiaries, despite clear intent by the testator that the trust remain in place throughout the life of the income beneficiary
- On behalf of an Estate, successful prosecution establishing that an unsigned document was a writing intended to be the last will and testament of a decedent
- Successful resolution of several class action claims in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Middlesex County, against several multifamily property owners brought by current and former tenants alleging consumer fraud, breach of contract, and entitlement to punitive damages
- Obtained injunctive relief on behalf of several medical providers against a large managed care company
- Successful prosecution of many matters brought pursuant to the New Jersey Domestic Violence Prevention Act.
- Successful prosecution of a claim against a large insurance carrier for monies owed to an ambulatory surgical center. The decision ultimately was reached after a successful appeal in which the trial court was reversed and judgment was entered in favor of the center
- Successful appellate challenge to an insurance carrier's attempts at obtaining information from medical providers. Resulted in a multi-million-dollar settlement of claims asserted by several medical providers against a large insurance carrier
